

WHAT FLAGS & BANNERS ARE USED FOR:

- Glorifying God
- Shows Victories Won
- A demonstration of God's presence lifted up in our midst
- Bestows honor to Jesus or to people
- Can be a rallying point of healing. In the desert when Moses lifted up the serpent on the stake, that was form of a visual banner for healing
- Ministers
- Unifies the company. In the Tabernacle in the desert, each of the 12 tribes had their own banner (Numbers 2:34)
- Tells people who you represent
- Heralds an event
- Signals or attracts attention to an event that is happening
- Rallies the troops to war
- Puts the enemy to flight

GATEKEEPERS 1 CHRONICLES 9:17-27

The flag bearer is a Gatekeeper waving a flag and opening unseen gates in the spiritual realm. For example as the Freedom flag is waved, it opens the gates and the people of God enter into an atmosphere where freedom is interceded for, declared and proclaimed in our lives and on this earth. Each anointed flag opens up a different gate. Psalm 24:7-10 enlightens us to the fact that there are gates within us that were created by God for the purpose of allowing the Lord of Host to enter in. As the flags wave, the flag bearer prays that the spiritual gates that lay within the body of Christ be opened to receive the King of Glory, the Lord of Hosts!
